

2009/10 Food Safety Program - Victoria

Discounted Member Offer for Food Safety Program Manuals and Audits

Food Safety Programs are compulsory for meat retailers in Victoria. The food safety audit is normally conducted to determine whether an effective Food Safety Program has been undertaken by the butcher. Food safety audits must be conducted by an approved food safety auditor.

Where you are cooking on the premises, or repackaging bulk ready-to-eat products, the required audit scope is higher – so costs more to deliver.

PrimeSafe is the governing body in Victoria that aims to ensure Food Safety standards are being met. PrimeSafe has responsibility for regulating the safety of meat, poultry and seafood in Victoria.

AMIC can help you implement a suitable Food Safety Program. Talk to AMIC about your needs.

Discount Fees For a Food Safety Program

Standard Package

Those members who have a thorough current working knowledge of their required Food Safety Program and procedures can immediately receive the benefit of reduced standard audit costs upon joining the AMIC Audit Program. This is often a saving of $100 or more per audit. The standard package includes:

- Food Safety Manual - Comprehensive guide to program requirements, including forms. It is regularly reviewed to ensure it complies with changing regulations. Updates to the manual are provided free of charge.
- Day Diaries - assist in maintaining daily records of cool-room temperatures, product delivery temperatures, hygiene and process checks, incident reporting and other required information and forms.

Food Safety Manual: $66 incl GST and delivery (once only)

Basic Audit Fee: $242.00 incl GST per audit

Cooking Audit Fee: $264.00 incl GST per audit

New shops require an initial "Certification Audit", which we can also arrange for you with our audit contractor.

Premium Package

For those opening new shops, or who feel they don't have a complete grasp of current requirements, AMIC can provide you with a premium program service that includes:

- Induction Service - AMIC visits you and guides you in implementing your Food Safety Program. Most members take this option
- Food Safety Manual - as above
- Day Diaries - as above

New shops require an initial "Certification Audit", which we can also arrange for you with our audit contractor.

Joining Fee: $275 incl GST (once only and includes induction, food safety manual plus day diary)

Basic Audit Fee: $242.00 incl GST per audit

Cooking Audit Fee: $264.00 incl GST per audit
